

Woodrush Training Consortium

National Professional Qualification for Leading Behaviour and Culture (NPQLBC)

NPQLBC is a new qualification for teachers who have, or are aspiring to have, responsibilities for leading behaviour and/or supporting pupil wellbeing in their school.

This NPQ is:

- Underpinned by the latest evidence of what works in improving teaching and outcomes for children and young people
- Delivered flexibly to ensure you can invest in your own professional development alongside your existing commitments
- Directly relevant and applicable to your current roles
- Career-building – preparing you for future roles and helping you to build strong professional networks that will sustain you
- Designed for teachers from a wide range of settings
- Focused on the skills needed to implement and sustain change and improvement

The course curriculum will support you to develop expertise that is flexible and allows you to respond to the challenges you will encounter in a range of contexts. It will provide you with a network, common language and access to a continuous debate through which the collective expertise of our education system can grow and develop.

The course will cover important areas of study including:

- How to contribute to the creation of a culture of high expectations across the school
- How to support the development of a positive and safe environment for pupils
- How to support pupils who need more intensive support with their behaviour
- How to contribute to effective professional development linked to behaviour and culture across the school
- How to plan and execute implementation in stages and make the right choices on what to implement.

The cost : £895

To register interest please contact : trainingconsortium@woodrush.org

Woodrush Training Consortium is a delivery partner of Capita who are a subsidiary of LLSE an accredited provider of the National Professional Qualifications.

Accredited NPQ provider

Department
for Education